A promoter or organizer of a special event is required to register for sales tax collection with the Sales and Use Tax Section. The promoter or organizer is also required to provide each vendor special event tax reporting forms and any other information which may be required. A special event means an entertainment, amusement, recreational, or marketing event which occurs at a single location on an irregular basis and where tangible personal property is sold. Special events include, but are not limited to, music shows and events; auto shows; boat shows; gun shows; knife shows; home shows; craft shows; flea markets; carnivals; circuses; bazaars; fairs; and art or other merchandise displays or exhibits. A copy of Arkansas Code Ann. § 26-52-518 which defines a special event, a promoter or organizer, and special events vendors is included on the following page.

The sales of tickets or admission fees to the event are subject to state and local sales tax. The furnishing of camping spaces is subject to the 2% Tourism Tax in addition to state and local sales tax. If tangible personal property (tables, tablecloths, chairs, etc.) is rented to the vendors, the 1% Short Term Rental Tax must be collected in addition to the state and local sales tax. Charges for parking are also subject to state and local tax.

The current state sales tax rate is 6.5%. Local sales tax is also to be collected with the rate dependent on the location of the event. The local sales tax rates are available by following the link to the Sales and Use Tax Section on our website: <http://www.dfa.arkansas.gov/Pages/default.aspx>.

The special event vendors are required to file daily reports with the promoter or organizer and remit the daily sales tax along with their completed forms. Envelopes are provided for each vendor to enclose the form and payment for each day.

Within thirty (30) days following the event, the promoter or organizer is required to forward all the daily reports and payments to the Sale and Use Tax Section. If the promoter fails to transmit the reports and payments, the promoter will be liable for the failure to remit the taxes due which they have collected from the special event vendors. The promoter or organizer should transmit to the Sales and Use Tax Section all the daily forms and payments collected from each special events vendor in the enclosed self addressed postage paid envelope.

If you have additional questions, please contact the Sales and Use Tax Section, P. O. Box 3566, Little Rock, Arkansas 72203-3566, phone number 501-682-7104.
